

There are a couple different places you can go to find out what courses have fees.

The first is the registrars website. <http://www.registrar.ufl.edu/soc/> You can look up the department and it will give you all the courses and the total fees associated.

The screenshot shows the Registrar Services website. The main heading is "Registrar Services". Below it, there are three columns for "SPRING 2011", "SUMMER 2010", and "FALL 2010". A blue arrow points from the "ART AND ART HISTORY" section in the second screenshot to the "ART AND ART HISTORY" section in this screenshot.

The screenshot shows a course schedule for "ART AND ART HISTORY" in Fall 2010. The table lists course details including Course ID, Fee, Credit Hours, and Instructor.

The second is to go into PS>UF Campus Solutions>eForms>eForms Course Fee Overview. Clear the Term out and Search on your Acad Org. for each Department and Form Status Authorized. If you click the ISIS Course ID it will sort everything together. When you have multiple lines with one course look at the Description to see if it is Equipment Use or M&S, then look at the eForm ID and take the largest Authorized number to get the total Dollar amount per Fee type. In this example the highlighted ones are the current fees.
